

Do's and Don't for Pink Trial ESG Treasure Hunt:

Do's

- 1. Stay on Designated Event Boundaries: Stick to designated paths and trails to minimize disturbance to the fragile ecosystem and for your own safety.
- 2. Respect Wildlife: Observe wildlife from a distance and avoid approaching or disturbing them. Do not feed or touch any animals.
- 3. Pack Out What You Bring: Carry out all trash, including food wrappers and containers. Leave no trace behind.
- 4. Stay Hydrated: Bring an adequate supply of water to stay hydrated throughout the treasure hunt.
- 5. Wear Appropriate Clothing: Dress in layers and use sunscreen to protect against the elements.
- 6. Notify Someone of Your Plans: Inform a friend or family member of your location and estimated return time for safety purposes.
- 7. Respect Plant Life: Avoid trampling on plants and avoid picking any vegetation.
- 8. Follow Organizers' Guidelines: Adhere to any specific guidelines provided by the event organizers, including safety instructions and rules.

Don'ts

- 1. No Littering: Never leave trash behind. Dispose of it properly in designated bins.
- 2. No Open Fires: Do not light fires or use stoves within the area. This can be dangerous and harmful to the environment.
- 3. No Straying from Designated Event Boundaries: Stay on designated paths and trails. Do not venture off into unmarked areas, as this can be dangerous.
- 4. No Collecting: Refrain from collecting rocks, plants, or any natural items from the event site. Leave everything as you found it.
- 5. No Loud Music: Keep noise levels to an optimum and acceptable level to avoid disturbing other visitors.
- 6. No Vandalism: Do not deface or damage any signs, markers, or property within the event site.

By following these do's and don'ts, participants can enjoy a safe and environmentally responsible treasure hunt experience while contributing to the conservation of this unique ecosystem.
